Following conclusion of the readiness hearing the court will set conditions for the confirmation of the jury trial pursuant to EDM-CrRLJ 4.5(b). Conditions may include the defendant calling and/or meeting with their attorney prior to the scheduled trial date. Failure of the defendant, if appearing pro se, or the defendant's attorney, if represented by legal counsel, to confirm the jury trial or to advise the Court Clerk that another disposition has been reached shall constitute an excluded period of the defendant's speedy trial right pursuant to CrRLJ 3.3(e)(3). (iii) Failure to Appear. Failure of the defendant to appear on the jury trial date may result in the issuance of a bench warrant and the forfeiture of any posted bail unless a disposition has been confirmed by all parties. Any disposition will be heard on the next regularly scheduled court day unless an alternative date is set by the parties and is approved by the judge, judge pro tem or court commissioner.

(iv) Sanctions. Failure to comply with this rule or EDM-CrRLJ 4.5(a) may result in the imposition of sanctions.
